II. And be it further enacted, That within and throughout that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, there shall be raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied, rate and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Malt, the Duty hereto after mentioned, (that is to say) For and upon every Bushel of Malt which at any time or times from and after the Twenty third Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and before the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, shall be made of Barley or any other Grain in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, by any Person or Persons whatsoever (whether the same shall be or not be for Sale) the Sum of Three pence, and is proportionably for a greater or less Quantity, to be paid by the Maker or Makers thereof respectively.

Former Acts in

levying and managing such Duties; and that the same Acts formerly made and passed, and the said other Acts hereby referred unto, as for and concerning the said Duties upon Milk, and every Article, Rule, Clause, Matter and Thing in them or any of them contained, authoritatively referred unto, and now being in force, and not otherwise altered by this Act, shall be and continue in force and effect, to all Intents and Purposes, for raising, levying, collecting, enforcing and accounting for the Rates, Dues and Impositions hereby granted and continued respectively, and for levying and recovering the Penalties and Forfeitures, and making any Mitigations and proportional Allowances, and all other Matters and Things during the Continuance of this Act, as fully as if the same were particularly and at large repeated in the Body of this present Act; save and except as to so much of the said Acts or either of them, herein mentioned or referred unto, as give Power to the Commissioners of Excise, or to any other Person or Persons therein named, in England and Scotland respectively, to compound and agree with any Person or Persons for the Duties of such Milk which should grow due or payable from him, her or them, by the said Acts or either of them; any Thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And Whereas it is the true Intent and Meaning of this present Act, that the full and entire Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, clear of all Charges and Expenses of Management and Collection, shall be raised out of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, by a Milk Tax to be raised and levied as in England, by a Duty of Three pence per Bushel on all Milk made and consumed in Scotland; and in case the said Duty of Three pence per Bushel upon Milk to be charged as aforesaid by virtue of this Act, being duly surveyed and collected, shall not be sufficient effectually to raise and answer the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds and so much Money, after all Charges and Deductions whatsoever, that then such Deficiency shall be made good by a Surcharge to be made upon all Makers of Milk in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in Proportion to the Milk they shall respectively make between the Twenty third Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixteen and the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and seventeen; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in case it shall appear to the Commissioners of Excise for the time being, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, that the Duty upon Milk made in Scotland, by this Act granted as aforesaid, shall not be sufficient to answer the clear Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds as aforesaid, then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said last mentioned Commissioners of Excise, and the Officers under them, to make a proportional Surcharge upon all and every Person and Persons who shall have made any Milk in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, within the Year ending the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, or so much Money, by way of additional Duty, upon all the Milk made by such Person or Persons respectively, as shall make good such Person or Persons' proportional Part of such Deficiency; which said Surcharge shall be paid to the respective Collectors of the said Duties on Milk by the respective Persons on whom the same shall be so made, within One Month after the same shall be so levied, or, in Default thereof, the respective Person or Persons who shall neglect or refuse to make such Payment, shall forfeit Treble the Sum upon him, her or them respectively levied as aforesaid, to be recovered in such Manner as the Duty of Three pence per Bushel may be recovered by virtue of this Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament herein before recited or referred unto, which said Surcharge by way of additional Duty for making good the Deficiency of the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds (if any such Deficiency there shall be) shall be computed and settled as followeth; (that is to say) as the particular Quantity of Milk made by each such Maker or Maker of Milk in Scotland, within the said Year ending the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, shall bear Proportion to the whole Quantity of Milk made in Scotland within the same Year, so the particular Surcharge to be made upon each particular Maker or Maker of Milk, for or towards making good the said Deficiency, shall bear Proportion to the whole Sum which shall be found to be deficient as aforesaid.

V. Provided nevertheless, and he it declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if the said Rate of Three pence per Bushel shall produce a greater Sum than the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds clear of all Charges of Management, the said Surplusage so produced over and above the said clear Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds shall be wholly applied towards the encouraging and promoting of the Fisheries, and such other Manufactures and Improvements in Scotland, as may most conduce to the general good of the United Kingdom, and to no other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, in such manner as directed by an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled An Act for encouraging and promoting Fisheries and other Manufactures and Improvements in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

VI. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That in all Cases where the heretofore recited Act of the First Year of his present Majesty's Royal Majesty relates to any Day or time within the Year which commenced from the Twenty third Day of June One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one, this present Act shall and shall relate to the like Day and Time within the Year commenced from the said Twenty third Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

VII. [20th June 1816.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Twenty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for enabling His Majesty to discharge the Debts contracted upon His Civil List Revenues, and for preventing the same from being an Arrears for the future, by regulating the Mode of Payments out of the said Revenues; and by suppressing or regulating certain Office therein mentioned, which are now paid out of the Revenues of the Civil List: And Whereas an Act passed in the Twenty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for establishing certain Regulations in the Receipt of the Exchequer: And Whereas an Act passed in the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act to enable the Lord Treasurer of the Hansehold, the Lord Chamberlain, the Master of the Horse, the Master of the Robes, and the Lords of the Treasury, respectively, to pay Bounties granted by His Majesty as Prizes in law and indigent Circumstances: And Whereas an Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for the better Support of His Majesty's Hansehold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom, and for preventing Accumulation of Arrears in the Payments out of the Civil List Revenues: And Whereas an Act passed in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain Sum for defraying the Expenses incident to the Adornment of the Personal Service of the Royal Authority by His Royal Highness The Prince Regent, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty: And Whereas another Act passed in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for the Regulation of His Majesty's Hansehold, and for enabling His Majesty the Queen, in and the necessary Expenses to which His Majesty may be compelled during His Majesty's Indisposition; and for the Care of His Majesty's Real and Personal Property; and to amend an Act of the last Session of Parliament, in providing for the Administration of the Royal Authority during His Majesty's Absence: And Whereas the ordinary Revenues of the Civil List have for many Years past been found inadequate to defray the Charges thereof, and the Deficiency has been made good by the Application of the Funds arising from the Debits of the Crown, or other Extraordinary Resources, or by special Grants of Parliament: And Whereas it is highly expedient that the ordinary Revenues of His Majesty's Civil List should be made adequate to the ordinary Charges thereof, and that several of the Charges which have heretofore been borne upon the Civil List Revenues should in future be made a Charge upon and be defrayed out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, or otherwise provided for; and it is also expedient that distinct and separate Appropriations should be made of certain Portions of the Civil List Revenues, for the Payment of certain Charges consigned in the several Clauses of the Civil List, and that further and more effectual Provisions should be made for the Regulation and Control of the Expenditure thereof: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, the Payment of the several Allowances and Sums of Twelve thousand Pounds to His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York, of Two thousand five hundred Pounds to His Royal Highness William Henry Duke of Clarence, and of Four thousand Pounds to each of Their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Augusta Sophia, the Princess Elizabeth, the Princess Mary, and the Princess Sophia, heretofore granted by His Majesty, and charged upon the Civil List Revenues, shall cease and determine, and such Allowances and Sums of Money shall be no longer payable or paid out of the said Revenues; but from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, the said several Allowances and Sums of Money respectively shall be charged and chargeable upon and issuing and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, during the Joint Lives of His Majesty and Their said Royal Highnesses respectively, as to each of their said respective Allowances and Sums aforesaid.***

Certain Sums heretofore paid to a Part of the Royal Family out of the Civil List to be borne after payable out of Consolidated Fund.

Allowance to the Royal Family to be paid in the Exchequer without Fee or Reward.

Class of Taxes. Sums appropriated to Payment.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said several and respective Allowances, Sums of Money and Annuities as aforesaid, shall be issued and paid out of the said Consolidated Fund, after paying and retaining sufficient to pay all such Sums as shall have been directed to be paid out of the same by any Act or Acts of Parliament made and passed before the passing of this Act, and with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may at any time after the passing of this Act be charged upon and payable out of the said Fund, and shall be paid and payable at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer out of the said Fund, and the Auditor of the said Receipt shall be and he is hereby required to make forth and pass Debentures from time to time for paying the said respective Sums, as the same shall become due and payable, without any Fees or Charges to be demanded or taken for paying the same or any Part thereof; and the respective Acquittance or Acquittances, Receipt or Receipts of Their said Royal Highnesses respectively, as to each of the said Allowances, Sums of Money or Annuities aforesaid, or of such other Person or Persons as shall be by them respectively duly authorized and appointed to receive their respective Allowances, Sums of Money or Annuities as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, shall be good and sufficient Discharges for the Payment thereof respectively; and the said Debentures to be made forth and passed for carrying into Execution the Provisions of this Act shall be a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer now and for the time being, for the Payment of the said respective Sums of Money, without any further or other Warrant to be had for, had or obtained in that Behalf; and that the said respective Sums of Money so to be paid, shall be free and clear from all Taxes, Rates and Assessments, and all other Charge whatsoever.

III. And Whereas an Estimate has been laid before Parliament of the future Annual Charges of the several Classes of His Majesty's Civil List, the Amount of which, for each Class respectively, is specified in the the Schedule to this Act annexed; and it is expedient, for enforcing the regular Payment of the said Charges, & saving in such Clais respectively, that Appropriations should be made out of the Civil List Revenues, so as to be made hereinafter directed: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby required, at the Commencement of every Quarter, or within a Period not exceeding Thirty Days from the Commencement of such Quarter, by Warrant under their Hands, to direct what Sums shall respectively be set apart and appropriated, in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, out of the Quarterly Revenues of the Civil List, for the Purpose of defraying the several Charges upon the respective Clais thereof; but so as that the Sum to be appropriated to the said Clais do not exceed One fourth Part of the estimated annual Amount of that Clais, as specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and so that the Sum to be appropriated to the other of the Clais in any One Quarter be equal to One fourth Part of the estimated Amount of such Clais, together with any Saving which may have accrued upon the said Clais in the preceding Quarter; and the several and respective Sums, in the said Warrant directed to be set apart and appropriated, shall be so set apart by the Auditor of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and be appropriated to the respective Clais accordingly; and each and every Sum so set apart and appropriated, shall in the First Instance be applied in the Payment of all the unfunded Charges of every Description of the Clais in respect of which such Appropriation shall have been made, in Preference to any other Charges whatever upon His Majesty's Civil List Revenues; and no Part thereof shall on any Account whatever be applied for any other Purpose, or in Aid of any other of the Clais of the Civil List, or of any other of the Charges thereof, except in the manner hereinafter provided; any thing contained in the said recited Act of the Twenty third Year thereof, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; but in case the actual Charge of any Clais or Clais of the Civil List shall exceed the Sum which may have been appropriated thereto, then such Excess shall and may be paid out of any Money in the Exchequer arising from His Majesty's Civil List Revenues, which may not have been appropriated to any particular Clais or Clais of the Civil List.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Saving or Surplus shall arise in any Quarter, in respect of any Money appropriated for defraying the Charges of any particular Clais, so as that the Sum appropriated thereto shall be more than sufficient for the full and complete Payment of the Charges thereon, such Quarterly Saving or Surplus shall in every such case be carried forward in the Exchequer to the Account and Credit, and be applied for the Purpose of the Clais in which it shall have arisen, until the Fifth Day of January in every Year; and in case such Saving or Surplus remaining at that time shall have arisen in the Third Clais, then it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby required, to direct the same to be carried to the Account of the said Confederated Fund; but in case and whenever any such Saving or Surplus remaining at the End of the Year shall have arisen in any other of the Clais of the Civil List, then it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to direct the same to be applied in Aid of the Charges or Expenses of any other Clais, or of any other Charge or Charges upon His Majesty's Civil List Revenues, in such manner as may under the Circumstances appear to be most expedient.

V. And Whereas it is expedient that the Income as well as the Charge of His Majesty's Civil List Revenues should, as far as may be practicable, consist of such Sums as are fixed and certain in their Amount, and that so much of the said recited Act of the Twenty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as enacts, that the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall direct the Surplus of the Fees and Gratuities, specified in the said Act, to be carried to the Account of the Monies applicable to the Use of His Majesty's Civil Government and to the Sinking Fund, or the Proportions as the said Act provided, should therefore be repealed: Be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act as is above recited shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that from and after the passing of this Act, there shall be applied to the Civil List Revenues, out of the Surplus of such Fees and Gratuities, the Sum of Forty eight thousand Pounds per Annum, by even and equal Quarterly Payments; and the Remainder of such Surplus shall go and be carried to the said Confederated Fund.

VI. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act to direct that Accounts of Surplus and Disbursements of Public Salaries, Profits and Allowances, shall be annually laid before Parliament, and to regulate and controul the granting and paying of such Salaries, Profits and Allowances, it is provided, that when any Deficiency of the Fee Fund should be found in the Offices of the Principal Secretary of State, of the Council and of the Treasury, the same should be made good out of the Civil List; And Whereas it is expedient that the said Provision should be repealed, and that any Deficiency of the Fee Fund which may arise in any of those Offices should not hereafter be made good out of the Civil List, or be considered as forming any Part of the ordinary Charges thereof, but should be made good out of such other Funds as may be provided by Parliament: Be it therefore further enacted, That so much of the said Act as is above recited, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that from and after the passing of this Act, the Deficiency of Fees which may be found in any of the said Offices shall not be considered as forming any Part of the ordinary Charges of the Civil List, but that the same shall be made good out of any Funds which may be granted by Parliament to discharge such Expenses, of a Civil nature, or do not form a Part of the ordinary Charges of the Civil List.

VII. And Whereas it may frequently happen that Pensions, Fees and Salaries may be directed to be paid in the Exchequer, in Cases where the Funds allotted to such Pensions, Fees and Salaries, may have died previously to the Day up to which such Payments may have been directed, by which the Money becomes appropri-ed to specific Clais of Civil List, and so is applied in the First Instance in Payment thereof in Preference to all other Payments.

Treasury may direct Surplus in any Clais to be applied in the Year, in Aid of the other Clais.

Application of Exchequer Fees recited, and a fixed Sum carried to Civil List Revenues, and Remainder to Confederated Fund.

printed in the Hands of the proper Officers of the Exchequer, and cannot be applied to any Purpose whatever without the Authority of Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient that Authority should be given to the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, for the time being, to authorize the proper Officers of the Exchequer, who may have been directed to pay, out of His Majesty's Civil List Revenues, any Sum or Sums to any Person or Persons, for any Pension, Fee or Salary which did not become due or could not be paid in consequence of the Death of the Person to whom it was directed to be paid, to pay the said Sum to any other Person or Persons, for the Purpose of the same being again paid into the Exchequer, and applied, if arising upon the Third Clause of the Civil List, to the Account of the Consolidated Fund, and if arising in any other of the Clauses of the Civil List, to the Account of His Majesty's Civil List Revenues: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized, from time to time, by Warrant under their Hand or Hands, to direct the proper Officers of the Exchequer to pay to any Person or Persons who may be named in the said Warrant, any Sum or Sums which may have been directed to be paid to any Person or Persons for any Pension, Fee or Salary, but which did not become due or could not be paid in consequence of the Death of the Person or Persons to whom the same was directed to be paid before the Day up to which such such Person, Fee or Salary, may have been directed to be paid; and the Sum or Sums which may be ordered under such Warrant or Warrants shall be repaid into the Exchequer, and applied, if arising upon the Third Clause of the Civil List, to the Account of the Consolidated Fund, and if arising in any of the other Clauses of the Civil List, to the Account of His Majesty's Civil List Revenues.

VIII. And Whereas it would effectually contribute to the Economy of a due Economy in the different Branches of the Royal Household, by establishing a more effectual Superintendence over that Part of the Civil List which belongs to the Departments of the Lord Chamberlain, the Lord Steward, and the Master of the Horse, if an Officer were appointed specially for the Purpose of examining and auditing the Bills, Expenses and Accounts of these Departments respectively: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby required, to appoint a proper Person, who shall be empowered and required to examine and audit all the Treasurer's Bills, and the Accounts and Expenses incurred or to be incurred in the Departments of the Lord Chamberlain, Lord Steward, and Master of the Horse, and to examine into all the Expenditure within these Departments during his Progress, and to report thereon to the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, so that the same may be, in far as may be practicable, in conformity to the previous Estimates directed, as in and under and approved by the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them; and the said Officer in the Execution of the said Duty shall obey such Orders and Directives as he shall from time to time receive from the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them; and it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to grant to such Officer, out of the Civil List Revenues, such Salary as His Majesty may think fit, not exceeding One thousand five hundred Pounds per Annum; and the said Officer, during the holding of the said Office shall be and he is hereby declared to be incapable of being elected one or of sitting and voting in Parliament.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby required, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, to prepare a full and complete Code of Instructions for the Guidance of the Conduct of such Auditor in the Execution of his Duties as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, from time to time to alter and change such Code of Instructions, or to alter any additional Instructions for the Conduct of the said Officer, in such manner as the Good of His Majesty's Service may from time to time appear to them to require; and such Officer for the time being shall in all such in the Execution of his Office govern himself in the Performance of his Duties therein by such Instructions, in like manner as if the same had been ordered and made Part of this Act.

X. And Whereas it may be necessary that the said Officer, in the Execution of the Duty to be imposed in him, should be empowered to examine Persons upon Oath: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Officer, by and with the Consent and Authority, in each particular case, of the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, to be signified by One of the Secretaries of the Treasury, to call before him any of the Officers or Persons holding any Office, Situation or Place under the Lord Chamberlain, or under the Lord Steward, or under the Master of the Horse, and also any Person not belonging to any or either of the said Departments, who may have supplied or furnished, or been concerned or employed in the supplying or furnishing any Articles, Manors and Things, or for the Use of either of the said Departments respectively, or who may be able, in the Judgment of the said Officer, to give any Information relating thereto, and to examine any such Person or Persons as aforesaid upon Oath, or Affirmation (if Quakers), which Oath or Affirmation such Officer is hereby authorized to administer, as to any such Accounts, Expenses or Charges, or any Manors or Things relating thereto, or as to any such Articles or Things is supplied or furnished as aforesaid, or touching and concerning any Matter or Thing necessary for the said, find, and accurate Examination and Audit of any such Accounts or Expenses or Charges; and in case of the Failure by any Person to comply with any such the lawful Requisition of the said Officer, every such Person is refusing, if an Officer or Servant or Tradesman employed in any of the said Departments, shall be dismissed from his Situation or Employment, and be incapable of being again employed in such Office, Servant

or Treasurer is the Service of His Majesty; and every such Person shall also be liable to the Payment of such Fine to His Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to the said Court by the said Officer, or by His Majesty's Attorney General, shall think fit to fix and impose, which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to fix and impose accordingly.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person in the Course of any Examination upon Oath or Affirmation before any such Auditor under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, such Person be offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Fines and Penalties as by any Law now in force Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Officer so to be appointed shall, when he has duly examined such Accounts and Vouchers as aforesaid, make up a State or States thereof, in such Manner and Form as shall be required by his Instructions in that Behalf, and deliver the same to the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, are hereby authorized, if they shall see fit, to direct any further Examination of the said Account, or to allow the same in case they shall be satisfied therewith; and such Allowance, and a Warrant under His Majesty's Sign Manual issued in pursuance of such Allowance, shall be a full and final Discharge for and upon any such Account, to all Intents and Purposes, without any further or other Audit, Account, Allowance or Discharge whatever; any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the total Charge upon the Civil List, from the Fifth Day of January in any one Year to the Fifth Day of January in the succeeding Year, shall amount to more than One million one hundred thousand Pounds, an Account listing the Particulars of such Exceeding, and the Cause thereof, shall be submitted to Parliament within Thirty Days after the same shall have been ascertained, if Parliament shall be then sitting; but if Parliament shall not be then sitting, then the said Account shall be presented within Thirty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament.

And he is further enacted, That no Memorial shall be received for Registry by any Registrar or Deputy Registrar in Ireland, which he shall receive at the same time the Debt or other Instrument required to be registered thereby; and if any such Registrar or Deputy Registrar shall receive such Memorial without such Debt or other Instrument, he shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

CI. And he is further enacted, That no attested Copy of any final Judgment, which shall have been entered in Ireland before the Commencement of the said second Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intended Ad Act to regulate the Collection and Management of the Stamp Duties as Law Proceedings, Attorneys, Solicitors, Proctors, and Corporate Officers in Ireland, and which shall have required a stamp, shall be given or received in Evidence, unless the Officer attesting the same shall certify, not only that the same is a true Copy of such Judgment, but also that such Judgment has been duly stamped; and if any Officer shall certify the same falsely, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Forty Pounds.

CII. And he is further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall be arrested by virtue of any Writ or Process of any of His Majesty's Superior Courts of Record in Dublin, at the Suit of any common Person, and the Sheriff or other Officer shall take Bail for such Person, against whom such Writ or Process shall issue, the Sheriff or other Officer, at the Request and Call of the Plaintiff in such Action or Suit, or of his lawful Attorney, shall duly assign to the Plaintiff in such Action or Suit the said Bond or other Security taken from such Bail, by Indorsement according to Law, without any Stamp in respect of such Assignment; and also when and as often as it shall become necessary for any Sheriff or other Officer in Ireland having Authority to grant Replevin, to assign any Bail Bond of any Plaintiff in Replevin, to the Avenger or Defendant in such Action, then and in such case such Assignment may be made without any Stamp in respect thereof: Provided nevertheless, that no Action shall be brought under any Assignment in any of the said cases until the same shall be first duly stamped with such Stamp as shall be then by Law required for such Assignment; and the said several Assignments shall, on Application at the Stamp Office in Dublin, at any time before any Action be brought thereupon, be duly stamped in such manner as shall be then required by Law, without Payment of any Penalty or other Sum, save only the Duty which shall be then payable thereon.

CIII. And he is further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, in all cases of the Sale of any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Annuities, or other Property, Real or Personal, or of any Right, Title, Interest, or Claim in, to, out of, or upon any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Annuities, or other Property where a Duty is or shall be from time to time imposed on the Conveyance thereof in proportion to the Amount of the Purchase or Consideration Money therein or thereupon expressed, the full Purchase or Consideration Money which shall be directly or indirectly paid or secured, or agreed to be paid for the same, shall be truly expressed and set forth in Words at length in or upon the principal or only Deed or Instrument whereby the Land or other thing sold shall be granted, assigned, transferred, released, reassigned or otherwise conveyed to or vested in the Purchaser or Purchasers, or to or in any other Person or Persons, by his, her or their Direction, and also where, upon the Sale of any Annuity, Endowment, Rentcharge or other Right, not before in existence, the same shall not be created by actual Grant or Conveyance, but shall only be secured by Bond, Warranty of Attorney, Covenant, Contract or other Security, the full Purchase or Consideration Money which shall be directly or indirectly paid or secured, or agreed to be paid for the same, shall be truly expressed and set forth in Words at length in or upon the Bond or other Instrument or Instruments by which the same shall be secured; and if in any of the said cases the full Purchase or Consideration Money shall not be truly expressed and set forth in manner hereby directed, the Purchaser and Purchasers, Seller and Sellers, and each and every of them, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and shall also be charged and chargeable with and be holden liable to the Payment of Five times the Amount of the Duty which should have been payable for such Deed, Bond or other Instrument as aforesaid, in respect of the full Purchase or Consideration Money, in case the same had been truly expressed and set forth in or upon such Deed, Bond or Instrument, beyond the Amount of the Duty actually paid for the same, which Quintuple Duty shall be deemed and taken to be a Debt to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of and from the Party or Parties respectively hereby made liable to pay the same, and may be recovered by a summary Application to the Court of Exchequer, against any such Party, in like manner as any unpaid Stamp Duty may be recovered under the Provisions of any Act of Parliament made or to be made in that behalf.

CIV. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That if any or either of the Parties hereby made liable to the Payment of such Penalty or Quintuple Duty as aforesaid, shall give Information to the Commissioners of Stamps, whereby such Penalty or Quintuple Duty, or any Part thereof, shall be recovered from any other Party or Parties liable respectively thereto, the Party or Parties giving the Information shall not only be indemnified and discharged of and from such his, her or their Liability, but also be rewarded by the Commissioners of Stamps out of the Penalty or Quintuple Duty so recovered, to such Extent as the said Commissioners shall think proper, but not exceeding One Half of what shall be so recovered; and where any other Person shall give Information whereby such Penalty or Quintuple Duty shall be recovered, he or she shall be rewarded in the like manner.

CV. And he is further enacted, That where the full Purchase or Consideration Money shall not be truly expressed or set forth in the manner hereby directed, it shall be lawful for the Purchaser or Purchasers, or any of them, or his, her or their Executors or Administrators, to recover back from the Seller or Sellers, his, her or their Executors or Administrators, so much and such Part of such Purchase or Consideration Money as shall shall not be expressed and set forth as aforesaid, or the Whole thereof, if no Part of the same shall be so expressed and set forth, either in an Affidavit for Money had and received for the Use of the Party or Parties suing for the same, or by Act of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information in any of His Majesty's Superior Courts of Record in Dublin, wherein an Affidavit, Protestation, Waiver of Law, nor more than One Imparison shall be allowed, together with Double the Costs of Suit; but such Purchase or Conveyance shall not therefore be affected or impeded for any Want or Inadequacy of Consideration, but the same shall be of the same Force, Validity and Effect as if the Sum so recovered had been expressed in the Deed or other Conveyance as the Consideration or Part of the Consideration thereof, and had been duly paid and retained accordingly.

CVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Attorney, Solicitor or other Person who shall be employed in or about the preparing of any such Deed, Bond or other Instrument, in or upon which the full Purchase or Consideration Money is hereby required to be truly expressed and set forth as aforesaid, or who shall be employed for any of the Parties therein in anywise about or relating to the Transaction therein mentioned, shall knowingly and wilfully insert or set forth, or cause to be inserted or set forth, in or upon any such Deed, Bond or other Instrument, any other than the full and true Purchase or Consideration Money directly or indirectly paid or secured, or agreed to be paid for the same, or shall in anywise aid or assist in the doing thereof respectively, every such Attorney, Solicitor or other Person so offending shall for every such Offence suffer the Sum of Five Hundred Pounds.

CVII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That no Party, Attorney, Solicitor or other Person whatsoever shall be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture whatsoever by reason of the full Purchase or Consideration Money not being truly expressed and set forth in any such Deed, Bond or other Instrument as aforesaid, unless the Duty or Duties actually paid for the same shall be left there would have been payable for the same, in case the full Purchase or Consideration Money had been truly expressed and set forth according to the Directions of this Act.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That where there shall be Duplicates or Triplicates, or more than One Part made of any Instrument which shall be then by Law charged with any ad valorem Duty, and of which One Part only shall be by Law chargeable with any ad valorem Duty, One of such Duplicates, Triplicates or Parts shall be charged with the said ad valorem Duty, and the other or others of them shall be exempted therefrom, but shall nevertheless be charged with the ordinary Duty on Deeds and Conveyances in general, and the said Commissioners of Stamps, upon all the Parts of such Instruments being produced to them duly stamped as hereby required, shall cause the Duplicates, Triplicates or all other Parts thereof respectively, except that to which the ad valorem Duty shall be stamped, to be also stamped with some particular Stamp for denoting or testifying the Payment of the said ad valorem Duty, and thereupon, but not before or otherwise, such Duplicate or Triplicate or other Part shall or may be received as Evidence in any Court of Justice.

CIX. And be it further enacted, That no Affidavit made for the Purpose of grounding thereon any Proceedings of any Grand Jury for suing Money for Repair of Roads, or for any other Public Purpose, shall be judged with or received by the Secretary of any Grand Jury, nor shall be entered in any Schedule delivered to any Grand Jury, nor shall any such Affidavit be delivered by him to or laid by him before any Grand Jury, unless such Affidavit shall be written on Paper stamped with the Stamp which shall be then by Law required for the same, nor shall any Affidavit for accounting for any Money presented by any Grand Jury, be laid before any Grand Jury by the Secretary, or be read in Court, or authorize the Court to discharge any Quare, unless it shall be written on Paper duly stamped.

CX. And be it further enacted, That no Collation, Presentation or Donation, to, of or for any Benefice or Spiritual or Ecclesiastical Promotion in Ireland, shall be good, valid or effectual, unless the same shall be in Writing under Hand and Seal, and shall be duly stamped, if a Stamp shall be necessary thereon; and that every such Writing, as also all and every Presentation or Donation under the Great Seal of Ireland, shall be deposited with the Register of the Diocese, who shall forthwith cause the same to be filed in the Registry of the Diocese, and shall give to the Person so depositing the same a Certificate that the same has been so deposited, and such Certificate shall further state either that such Instrument is duly stamped, or that the same is not by Law subject to any Stamp, and shall also state the Date of such Instrument, and the Day of the Month and Year when such Instrument was so deposited or filed, and no Person shall be admitted into any Benefice or Promotion in Ireland, who shall not, previous to and at the time and Place of such Induction, produce such Certificate to the Person or Persons authorized to make such Induction, and if any Induction shall be made contrary to this Provision the same shall be wholly void and of no Effect, and every Person making the same shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds Sterling.

CXI. And be it further enacted, That every such Register shall, for so receiving and filing such Instrument, and granting such Certificate thereof, be entitled to receive a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence and no more, and a Fee of One Shilling and Sixpence for any new Certificate of the same matter that may be afterwards required; and if any such Register shall refuse, neglect, or omit to receive and file such Instrument, or to grant any such new Certificate, on reasonable Demand thereof, or shall certify wherein any thing which shall not be true, (of the Truth whereof the Proof shall lie on him), he shall for every such Offence suffer the Sum of One hundred Pounds Sterling.

* CXIII. And Whereas the Payment of Stamp Duties imposed on the Admission of Fellowships into the College of Physicians or Surgeons, and of Freeman and others into other Corporations, Guilds or Companies in Ireland, has been and may be evaded; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said College of Physicians or Surgeons, and for every Body Politic or Corporate, Corporation, Guild or Company in Ireland, which shall admit any Person or Persons into any such College, Corporation, Guild or Company, by themselves, or by some Person or Persons employed by such College, Corporation, Guild or Company, and they are hereby required, previously to the Admission of any such Person into such College, Corporation, Guild or Company, to demand and receive, for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of and from the Person is admitted, the several and respective Stamp Duties which shall be then by Law payable on the Entry, Minute or Memorandum of Admission of such Person into such College, Corporation, Guild or Company; and the proper Officer of such College, or Body Politic or Corporate, Corporation, Guild or Company, shall make an Entry, Minute or Memorandum of such Admission upon the proper Stamp in some Book, Roll, or Record of such College, Corporation, Guild or Company, within one Month after such Person shall be so admitted into such College, Corporation, Guild or Company; and if such Officer shall neglect or refuse to do so, he shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds; and every such College, Corporation, Guild or Company shall be answerable for all such Duties without any Proof of the same having been so received, or whether the same respectively shall have been so received or not, and the same shall be a Debt to His Majesty, and recoverable with Costs by a summary Application to the Court of Exchequer as any other unpaid Stamp Duty may be recovered under any Act or Acts in force or to be in force in Ireland, for the securing the Payment of the Stamp Duties.

CXIV. And be it further enacted, That any and every Officer of the College of Physicians or Surgeons, or of any Corporation, Guild, Fraternity or Company in Ireland, who shall from time to time have in his Custody any Book, File, Record, Remembrance, Docket or Proceeding of or belonging to such College, Corporation, Guild, Fraternity or Company, the Sight or Knowledge whereof may tend to the securing any of His Majesty's Stamp Duties which now are or shall at any time be by Law payable in Ireland, or to the Proof or Discovery of any Fraud or Quackery in relation thereto, or to any of them, shall at all reasonable times permit any Person thereto authorized by the Commissioners of Stamps, to try, search, inspect, and view all such Books, Files, Records, Remembrances, Dockets and Proceedings as aforesaid, without Fee or Reward, and to take thereout such Notes and Memorandums as shall be necessary for the Purposes last mentioned, without Fee or Reward; and if any such Officer shall refuse or neglect to do so, upon Demand made by such Person be authorized as aforesaid, such Officer is refusing or neglecting shall, for every such Refusal or Neglect, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds.

CXV. And be it further enacted, That the several Stamp Duties from time to time imposed by Law in Ireland, upon any Probates or Letters of Administration, or Receipts for Legacies, or Shares or Portions of any Estate or Effects, shall be deemed and taken to be chargeable and charged, and payable and paid, only in respect of the Amount or Value of such Estate and Effects as shall be situated in Ireland, and of such Legacies as shall be payable out of Estates and Effects in Ireland; and that no Person shall be deemed or taken to have proved any Will in Ireland until he shall have obtained Probate thereof from the proper Ecclesiastical Court in Ireland.

CXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Probate of the Will of any Person deceased, or the Letters of Administration of the Effects of any Person deceased, heretofore granted or to be hereafter granted in Ireland, shall be deemed and taken to be valid and available by the Executors or Administrators of the Decedent for recovering, transferring or assigning any Debt or Debts, or other Personal Estate or Effects, wherever or whereto the Decedent was possessed or entitled, either wholly or partially, as a Trustee, notwithstanding that the Amount or Value of such Debt or Debts, or other Personal Estate or Effects, or the Amount or Value of so much thereof, or such Interest therein, as was Trust Property in the Decedent (as the case may be) shall not be included in the Amount or Value of the Estate in respect of which the Stamp Duty was paid on such Probate or Letters of Administration.

CXVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Ecclesiastical Court or Jurisdiction in Ireland shall grant Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the Estate and Effects of any Person deceased, without first requiring and receiving from the Person or Persons applying for the Probate or Letters of Administration, or from some other competent Person or Persons, an Affidavit or solemn Affirmation in the case of Quakers, in the Form contained in the Schedule hereto annexed, that the Estate and Effects of the Decedent, for or in respect of which the Probate or Letters of Administration is or are to be granted, are under the Value of a certain Sum to be specified in such Affidavit to the best of the Depovent's or Affirmant's Knowledge, Information and Belief, and according to the Account to be assessed to such Affidavit, according to which Sum the Stamp Duty shall be ascertained which shall be then required on such Probate or Letters of Administration, which Affidavit or Affirmation shall be made before the Barrister or other Person who shall administer the usual Oath for the due Administration of the Estate and Effects of the Decedent.

CXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Affidavit or Affirmation shall be exempt from Stamp Duty, and shall be in the Form in the said Schedule to this Act annexed directed in that respect, and shall CXXIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, where any Person so applying for the Probate of a Will or Letters of Administration in Ireland shall have obtained the Estate and Effects of the Decedent to be of a greater Value than the same shall have afterwards proved to be, and shall in consequence have paid too high a Stamp Duty thereon, if such Person shall produce the Probate or Letters of Administration to the said Commissioners of Stamps, within Six Calendar Months after the true Value of the Estate and Effects have been ascertained, and it shall be discovered that too high a Duty was first paid on the Probate or Letters of Administration, and shall deliver to them a particular Inventory and Account and Valuation of the Estate and Effects of the Decedent, verified by an Affidavit (or solemn Affirmation, in the case of Quakers); and if it shall thereupon satisfactorily appear to the said Commissioners that a greater Stamp Duty was paid on the Probate or Letters of Administration than the Law required, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cancel and expunge the Stamp on the said Probate or Letters of Administration, and to reimburse another Stamp for denoting the Duty which ought to have been paid thereon, and to make an Allowance for the Difference between them as in the case of spoiled Stamps, or to repay the same in Money at the Discretion of the said Commissioners.

CXXX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, where any Person so applying for the Probate of a Will or Letters of Administration, shall have obtained the Estate and Effects of the Decedent to be of less Value than the same shall have afterwards proved to be, and shall in consequence have paid too little Stamp Duty thereon, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps, on Delivery to them of an Affidavit or solemn Affirmation of the Value of the Estate and Effects of the Decedent, to cause the Probate or Letters of Administration to be duly stamped, on Payment of the full Duty which ought to have been originally paid thereon in respect of such Value, and of the further Sum or Penalty payable by Law for stamping Deeds after the Execution thereof, without any Deduction or Allowance for the Stamp Duty originally paid on such Probate or Letters of Administration: Provided always, that if the Application shall be made within Six Calendar Months after the true Value of the Estate and Effects shall be ascertained, and it shall be discovered that too little Duty was at first paid on the Probate or Letters of Administration; and if it shall appear by Affidavit or solemn Affirmation to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that such Duty was paid in consequence of any Mistake or Misapprehension, or of not not being known at the time that same particular Part of the Estate and Effects belonging to the Decedent, and without any Intention of Fraud, or to delay the Payment of the full and proper Duty, then it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to remit the beforementioned Penalty, and to cause the Probate or Letters of Administration to be duly stamped, on Payment only of the Sum which shall be wanting to make up the Duty which ought to have been at first paid thereon.

CXXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in cases of Letters of Administration, on which too little Stamp Duty shall have been paid at first, the said Commissioners of Stamps shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in the manner aforesaid until the Administrator shall have given such Security to the Ecclesiastical Court or Ordinary by whom the Letters of Administration shall have been granted, as may be by Law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full Value of the Estate and Effects of the Decedent had been then ascertained, and also that the said Commissioners of Stamps shall yearly or sooner transmit an Account of the Probates or Letters of Administration upon which the Stamps shall have been reduced in pursuance of this Act, to the several Ecclesiastical Courts by which the same shall have been granted, together with the Value of the Estate and Effects of the Decedent, upon which such Reduction shall have proceeded.

CXXXII. And be it further enacted, That where too little Duty shall have been paid on such Probate or Letters of Administration, in consequence of any Mistake or Misapprehension, or of its not being known at the time that same particular Part of the Estate and Effects belonged to the Decedent, if any Executor or Administrator acting under such Probate or Letters of Administration shall not within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or after the Discovery of the Mistake or Misapprehension, or of any Estate or Effects not known at the time to have belonged to the Decedent, apply to the said Commissioners of Stamps, and pay what shall be wanting to make up the Duty which ought to have been paid at first on such Probate “ CXXIII. And Whereas it has happened in the Case of Letters of Administration as which the proper Stamp Duty hath not been paid at first, that certain Duties, Chancery, Real or other Effects, due or belonging to the Decedent, have been found to be of such great Value that the Administrator hath not been satisfied of Money sufficient either of his own or of the Decedent to pay the requisite Stamp Duty, in order to render such Letters of Administration available for the Recovery thereof by Law: And Whereas the like may occur again, and it may also happen that Executors or Persons entitled to take out Letters of Administration may, before obtaining Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the Estate and Effects of the Decedent, find some considerable Part or Parts of the Estate and Effects of the Decedent to be circumscribed as not to be immediately got Possession of, and may not have Money sufficient either of their own or of the Decedent to pay the Stamp Duty on the Probate or Letters of Administration, which it shall be necessary to obtain: Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps, on satisfactory Proof of the Fact, by Affidavit or solemn Affirmation in any such case as aforesaid, which may appear to them to require Relief, to cause the Probate or Letters of Administration to be duly stamped for denoting the Duty payable, or which ought arguently to have been paid thereon, and to give Credit for the Duty, either upon Payment of the beforementioned Penalty, or without, in case of Probate or Letters of Administration already obtained, and upon which ten Shilling Duty shall have been paid, and either with or without Allowance of the Stamp Duty already paid thereon, as the case may require, under the Provisions of this Act; provided in all such cases of Credit, the Security be first given by the Executors or Administrators, together with Two or more sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the said Commissioners by a Bond to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in Double the Amount of the Duty, for the due and full Payment of the Sum for which Credit shall be given, within Six Calendar Months, or any less Period, and of the Interest for the time at the Rate of Two Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the Expiration of such Period until Payment thereof, in case of any Default of Payment at the time appointed, and such Probate or Letters of Administration been so duly stamped in the manner aforesaid, shall be as valid and available as if the proper Duty had been at first paid thereon, and the same had been stamped accordingly.

Provided.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at the Expiration of the time to be allowed for the Payment of the Duty on such Probate or Letters of Administration, it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that the Executor or Administrator to whom such Credit shall be given as aforesaid shall not have recovered Effects of the Decedent to an Amount sufficient for the Payment of the Duty, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to give such further time for the Payment thereof, and upon such Terms and Conditions as they shall think expedient.

And be it further enacted, That the Duty for which Credit shall be given as aforesaid, shall be a Debt to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, from the Personal Estate of the Decedent, and shall be paid in preference to and before any other Debt whatsoever due from the said Estate; and if any Executor or Administrator of the Estate of the Decedent shall pay any other Debt in preference thereto, he or she shall not only be charged with and be liable to pay the Duty out of his or her own Estate, but shall also forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

“ CXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if before Payment of the Duty for which Credit shall be given in any such case as aforesaid, it shall become necessary to take out Letters of Administration de bonis non of the Decedent, it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps to cause such Letters of Administration de bonis non to be duly stamped with the particular Stamp provided to be affixed on Letters of Administration of that Kind, for denoting the Payment of the Duty in respect of the Effects of the Decedent, as here prior Probate or Letters of Administration of the same Effects, in such and the same manner as if the Duty had been actually paid upon having the Letters of Administration de bonis non deposited with the said Commissioners, and upon giving such further Security for the Payment of the Duty as they shall think expedient; and such Letters of Administration shall be as valid and available as if the Duty for which Credit shall be given had been paid.

cannot be delivered, and when they will not so apply, the Account may be rendered in such Form as shall sufficiently answer the Purposes desired, and the said Commissioners or their Officers shall examine such Accounts, and if it shall appear to them to be a just and proper Account they shall allow the Duty thereon, but if the Commissioners shall not be satisfied with the Account delivered, it shall be lawful for them to require an Account to be rendered on Oath or Affirmation, which Oath or Affirmation shall be according to the Form prescribed in the Schedule hereto annexed, and shall be administered by a Justice of the Peace, or Master or Masters Extraordinary in Chancery; and if it shall appear by the Books of the said Commissioners that there are any Outstanding Duties due and payable on Legacies or Annuities, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to require Payment of such Duties within a specified time, and that if after such Requisition the same shall not be paid, or Case shown to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners within the time specified why the same should not be paid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to intimate Proceedings in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer against the Executors or Administrators, or Person or Persons taking the Benefit of the Execution of the Will or Administration of the Personal Estate of the Decedent, or selling as Trustees or Trustrees, and also against the Legatee to whom the Legacy or Annuity upon which such Duty shall appear to be unpaid shall have been given, if the Circumstances of the case require it, for the Payment of the Duty; and if after such Proceedings shall be instituted it shall be shown that by reason of the Death of the Legatee or Annuantist in the Lifetime of the Decedent, or of the Legacy not being of the Value of Twenty Pounds, or from any other Cause, no Duty is payable, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Suit shall be instituted to order all Costs, Charges and Expenses attending such Proceedings to be paid by the Person or Persons of whom the said Commissioners shall have required Payment of the Duty, by way of Penalty for not having, after such Requisition, shown to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners that no Duty was payable on such Legacy or Annuity.

CXXXIX. Note.—The Purchase Money or Consideration is to be truly expressed and set forth in Words at Length, in or upon every such Deed or Instrument of Conveyance.

And where any Equity or Right of Redemption, or any Reversionary Right or Interest, of, in, to or out of any Lands or other Property, in Mortgage, or standing pledged or charged for or with the Payment of any Sum of Money, shall be conveyed or disposed of, either in Consideration of the Money so due on Mortgage, or in Consideration of that and of any further Sum, paid or agreed to be paid, the Conveyance of such Equity of Redemption, or Reversionary Right or Interest shall be deemed and taken to be a Conveyance upon the Sale of Property, and the Money due on such Mortgage shall be deemed and taken to be the Purchase Money, or Part of the Purchase Money for the same, as the case may be; and the Conveyance shall be liable to such Duty in respect of the whole of such Consideration, as any other Conveyance upon the Sale of Property is liable to, deducting thereout nevertheless such ad valorem Duty, if any, as shall have been previously paid on the Execution of such Mortgage, in respect of so much of the Principal Sum lent on such Mortgage, as shall then remain unpaid.

And where any Lands or other Property of different Tenures or Holdings, or held under different Titles, contracted to be sold at one entire Price for the whole, shall be conveyed to the Purchaser in separate Parts or Parcels by different Deeds or Instruments, the Purchase Money or Consideration shall be divided and apportioned in such manner as the Parties shall think fit, so that a distinct Price or Consideration for each separate Part or Parcel may be set forth in or upon the principal or only Deed or Instrument of Conveyance relating thereto, which shall be charged with the said ad valorem Duty, in respect of the Price or Consideration therein set forth.

And where any Lands or other Property contracted to be purchased by Two or more Persons jointly, or by any Person for himself and others, or wholly for others, at one entire Price for the whole, shall be conveyed in Parts or Parcels, by separate Deeds or Instruments, to the Persons for whom the same shall be purchased, for distinct Parts or Shares of the Purchase Money or Consideration, the Principal or only Deed or Instrument of Conveyance of each separate Part or Parcel shall be charged with the said ad valorem Duty in respect of the Sum of Money or other matter therein specified, as the Consideration for the same.

But if separate Parts or Parcels of such Lands or other Property shall be conveyed to, or to the use of or in trust for different Persons, in and by one and the same Deed or Instrument, then such Deed or Instrument shall be charged with the said ad valorem Duty in respect of the aggregate Amount of the Purchase Money or Consideration therein mentioned to be paid or given, or agreed to be paid or given, for the Lands or Property thereby conveyed.

SCHEDULE, PART I.

And where any Lands or other Property separately contracted to be purchased of different Persons at separate and distinct Prices, shall be conveyed to the Purchaser, or according to the Purchaser's Direction, in and by one and the same Deed or Instrument, such Deed or Instrument shall be charged with the ad valorem Duties which shall be then, by Law, payable on Conveyances on the Sale of Property for and in respect of the separate Consideration paid or given, or agreed to be paid or given, for such Lands or other Property, and not for and in respect of the aggregate Amount thereof.

And where any Person having contracted for the Purchase of any Lands or other Property, but not having obtained a Conveyance thereof, shall contract to sell to any other Person, and the same shall, in consequence, be conveyed immediately to the Sub Purchaser, the Principal or only Deed or Instrument of Conveyance shall be charged with the said ad valorem Duty in respect of the Purchase or Consideration Money therein mentioned to be paid, or agreed to be paid by the Sub Purchaser.

And where any Person having contracted for the Purchase of any Lands or other Property, but not having obtained a Conveyance thereof, shall contract to sell the whole or any Part or Parts thereof to any other Person or Persons, and the same shall, in consequence, be conveyed by the original Seller to different Persons in Parts or Parcels, the Principal or only Deed or Instrument of Conveyance of each Part or Parcel thereof shall be charged with the said ad valorem Duty in respect only of the Purchase Money or Consideration which shall be therein mentioned to be paid or given, or agreed to be paid or given for the same, by the Person or Persons to whom, or to whose Use, or in trust for whom the Conveyance shall be made; without regard to the Amount of the original Purchase Money or Consideration.

And in all cases of such Sub Sales as aforesaid, the Sub Purchasers and the Persons immediately selling to them, shall be deemed and taken to be the Purchasers and Sellers, within the Intent and Meaning of the Provisions and Regulations of this Act.

But where any Sub Purchaser shall take an actual Conveyance of the Interest of the Person immediately selling to him, which shall be chargeable with the said ad valorem Duty in respect of the Purchase Money or Consideration paid or given, or agreed to be paid or given, by him, and shall be duly stamped accordingly, any Deed or Instrument of Conveyance to be afterwards made to him of the Property in question, by the original Seller, shall be exempted from the said ad valorem Duty, and be charged only with the ordinary Duty on Deeds or Instruments of the same kind, not upon a Sale.

And where any Lands or other Property shall be sold and conveyed in consideration only or in part of any Sum of Money charged thereon by way of Mortgage or otherwise, and then due and owing to the Purchaser, or shall be sold and conveyed subject to any Mortgage, Bond or other Debt, or

C A P. LXVIII.

An Act to provide for a New Silver Coinage, and to regulate the Currency of the Gold and Silver Coin of this Realm.

[22d June 1816.]

WHEREAS the Silver Coin of the Realm have, by long Use and other Circumstances, become greatly diminished in Number and deteriorated in Value, so as not to be sufficient for the Payments required in Dealings under the Value of the Current Gold Coins, by Reason whereof a great Quantity of Light and Counterfeit Silver Coin and Foreign Coin has been introduced into Circulation within this Realm; and the Evils resulting therefrom can only be remedied by a new Coinage of Silver Money, to be made and issued under proper Regulations for maintaining its Value and preserving the same in Circulation: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of an Act made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for encouraging of Coinage and also so much of all and every other Act and Acts as provide and enact that whatsoever Person or Persons, Native or Foreigner,

(S. C. 1. c. 5. § 1. is put. repealed.)

Alloy or Straggler, should bring any Foreign Coins, Pistols or Ballons of Silver, in Mass, molten or alloyed, or any Sort or Manufacture of Silver, into His Majesty's Mint or Mints within the Kingdom of England, to be there melted down and coined into the Current Coins of this Kingdom, should have the same there assayed, melted down and coined with all convenient Speed, without any Defalcation, Deduction or Charge for the Assaying, Coining or Weighing in Coinage, so as that for every Pound Troy of Straggling or Standard Silver that should be brought in and delivered by him or there to be assayed, melted down and coined as aforesaid, there should be delivered out to him or them respectively, a Pound Troy of the Current Coins of this Kingdom, of Sterling or Standard Silver, and so proportionally for a greater or lesser Weight, or more or less, in Proportion to the Exact or Defectory in Purcents of any such Ballon, shall be and are hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That so much of an Act made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, intitled An Act for remedying the ill State of the Coin of the Kingdom, and also so much of all and every other Act and Acts in relation, made or provide, that the Weight and Fineness prescribed by any Indenture thereto made with His Majesty's Master and Workmen for making of Silver Moneys at the Tower of London, shall be and remain to be the Standard of and for the lawful Silver Coin of the Kingdom; and also so much of an Act made in the Fourteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to prohibit the Importation of Light Silver Coins of this Realm from foreign Countries into Great Britain or Ireland, and to restrain the Tender thereof beyond a certain Sum, as much as any Silver Coin of the Realm, less in Weight than after the Rate of Sixty two Shillings for every Pound Troy, shall be forfeited; and of any Act or Acts for remitting or continuing or making perpetual the Provisions of the said last recited Act in this respect, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be and the same is and are hereby repealed.

III. IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Master and Workmen of the Mint, at His Majesty's Mint in London, to coin or cause to be coined any Silver Bullion, which, at any time before or after the passing of this Act, shall have been or shall be brought to or delivered or deposited at the said Mint, into Silver Coins of a Standard and Fineness of Eleven Ounces Two Pennyweights of fine Silver, and Eighteen Pennyweights of Alloy in the Pound Troy, and in Weight after the Rate of Sixty six Shillings to every Pound Troy, whether the same be coined in Crowns, Half Crowns, Shillings or Sixpences, or Pieces of a lower Denomination; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, immediately before the passing of this Act, or any thing in any Indenture with His Majesty's Master or Workmen of the said Mint for the time being, or any Law, Usage or Custom whatsoever to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after such Period of time as shall be named and appointed in and by any Proclamation or Proclamations which shall be made and issued for that Purpose, by or on behalf of His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to bring and deliver into the said Mint any Silver Coin of this Realm heretofore coined and current, which shall by any Officer or Officers of the Mint be so appointed for that Purpose by the Master of the said Mint, be judged and deemed to be such Silver Coin of the Realm; and that there shall be delivered out from the said Mint, to every Person bringing in and delivering such Old Silver Coin a Sum in New Silver Coins, of Crowns, Half Crowns, Shillings and Sixpences, to be coined pursuant to the Directions of this Act, equal to the Amount of the Silver Coins so brought in and delivered as aforesaid, according to the respective Denominations of such Silver Coins; so that every such Person shall have and receive a Sum of Money equal in its Denomination to the New Silver Coinage, to the Sum for which the Old Silver Coin brought in shall have passed, according to the Denomination thereof; and all such Old Silver Coin so to be brought and delivered into and received at the said Mint, shall from time to time be melted down and coined into New Silver Coins of this Realm, according to the Directions of this Act respecting Money to be coined from any Silver Bullion brought into or deposited at the said Mint in manner aforesaid.

X. And be it further enacted, That an Account shall be kept at the Mint of the Amount of all Sums of Money arising from the Allowance of Four Shillings for every Pound Troy of Silver to be retained at the said Mint, in manner aforesaid; and that all such Sums so retained shall in the first Place be applied in or towards the Payment of the Expenses of the coining of such Silver; and the Surplus thereof (if any) after the Payment of such Expenses, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

XII. And Whereas it is expedient that the Silver Coins of the Realm should be a legal Tender by Tale, according to its Denomination, to any Amount not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after each Day as shall be for that Purpose named in any Proclamation, which at any time after the passing of this Act shall be made and issued, by or on behalf of His Majesty, with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to march and such Parts of the Act made in the Fourteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to prohibit the Importation of Light Silver Coins of this Realm from Foreign Countries into Great Britain or Ireland, and to restrain the Tender thereof beyond a certain Sum, as matters or provide or may be construed to enjoin or provide, that any Tender in Silver Coins of the Realm shall be legal to the Amount of Twenty five Pounds, or a Tender for any greater Sum, according to its Value by Weight, and also to such of any Act and Acts whereby the said last recited Act is confirmed, revised or made perpetual, shall be, and the same is and are hereby repeated accordingly; And that from and after each Day as shall be for that Purpose named in any such Proclamation to be made and issued as aforesaid, no Tender of Payment of Money made in the Silver Coins of this Realm, of any Sum exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings at any one time, shall be reputed a Tender in Law, or allowed to be a legal Tender within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, either by Tale or Weight of such Silver Coins or otherwise howsoever; any thing in the said recited Act of the Fourteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or in any other Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, or any Usage or Custom to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Person shall by any Means, Device, Shift or Contrivance whatsoever, receive or pay for any Gold Coins lawfully current within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, any more or less in Value, Benefit, Profit or Advantage, than the true lawful Value which such Gold Coins doth or shall by its Denomination import; nor shall utter or receive any Piece or Pieces of Gold Coins of this Realm, at any greater or higher Rate or Value, nor at any less or lower Rate or Value than the same shall be current for in Payment, according to the Rates and Values declared and set upon three persons to Law; and that every Person who shall offend herein shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being thereof convicted by due course of Law, shall suffer Imprisonment for the Term of Six Calendar Months, and shall find Sureties for his or her good Behaviour for One Year next, to be computed from the End of the said Six Months; and if the same Person shall afterwards be convicted of the like Offence, such Person shall for such Second Offence suffer One Year's Imprisonment, and find Sureties for his or her good Behaviour for One Year next, to be computed from the End of the said last mentioned Year; and if the same Person shall afterwards offend against this Act, and shall by due course of Law be convicted of any subsequent Offence, he or she shall be imprisoned for the Term of Two Years for every such subsequent Offence.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall be convicted of receiving or paying any such Gold Coins contrary to this Act, shall afterwards be guilty of the like Offence, the Clerk of the Assize or Clerk of the Peace for the County, City or Place where such Conviction was had, shall, at the Request of the Prosecutor or any other Person to His Majesty's behalf, certify such Conviction, for which Certificate Two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more, shall be paid; and such Certificate being produced in Court, shall be sufficient Proof of such former Conviction.

C A P. LXX.

An Act to alter and amend several Acts relating to the Redemption of the National Debt of Ireland, and to make further Provision in respect thereof.

[22d June 1816.]

WHEREAS the total Capital of the Debt of Ireland, funded in Ireland in perpetual Redeemable Annuities, amounting on the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and sixty seven, amounted to the Sum of Four millions eight hundred and twenty nine thousand one hundred and fifty six Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Five pence: And Whereas by several Acts passed in the Reigns of His present Majesty; that is to say, an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirtieth fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for vesting a certain Fund in Commissioners at the End of every Quarter of a Year, to be by them applied to the Reduction of the National Debt, and to direct the Application

enactment of additional Funds in case of future Loans to the like Purpose; in An Act passed in the Forty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, to amend to each of the said recited Acts of the Thirty seventh Year as relates to the Commissioners for carrying the same into Execution; and an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to enable the Lords of the Treasury of Ireland to issue to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt a Sum equal to One per Centum on the Amount of Treasury Bills outstanding in every Year (a), various Provisions were made for the gradual Reduction of the said Debt existing on the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and sixty seven, and of the Public Debt of Ireland then contracted: And Whereas by virtue of the said several Acts the Sum of Seven millions eight hundred and twenty two thousand five hundred and thirty Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Sixpence of Funded Capital of the said Debt had as or before the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen been actually purchased by and placed to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the said National Debt, and which said Sum is purchased by and placed to the Account of the said Commissioners as aforesaid, exceeds the total Capital of the Perpetual Redeemable Annuities of the Funded Debt of Ireland then existing on the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and sixty seven, by the Sum of Two millions six hundred and thirty three thousand and seventy three Pounds Five Shillings and Two pence, and also produces an Interest or yearly Dividend superior in Amount to the whole annual Charge of the Public Debt of Ireland then existing in Perpetual Redeemable Annuities existing on the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and sixty seven: And Whereas the Public Debtors may at this Period be greatly alienated, and the whole of the National Debt of Ireland now existing may nevertheless be redeemed within Forty five Years from the Period of the respective Loans by which the same was created, and the Reduction thereof may be accelerated, if the Provisions of the said recited Acts were altered and amended in the manner hereinafter expressed: Be it therefore enacted and declared by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for the Purpose of this Act, an Amount of Public Debt equal to the whole Capital of the Public Debt of Ireland in Perpetual Redeemable Annuities existing on the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and sixty seven, shall be deemed to be satisfied and discharged; and that so much of the Capital Stock is purchased by and placed to the Account of the said Commissioners as aforesaid, and now standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, as Parliament by any Act or Acts to be passed for that Purpose shall or may direct, shall be cancelled; and that the Interest or Dividend which shall have been payable on such Stock shall thenceforth cease to be issued from the Receipt of the Exchequer of Ireland, or to be charged on the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, and the Money which would have been applicable to the Payment thereof shall remain and be a Part of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, in order to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Debt of Ireland by way of Loan, or in any other manner for the Service of the present or any future Year; and that from time to time whenever such a further Amount of the Capital Funded Debt of Ireland shall have been purchased by and placed to the Account of the said Commissioners as shall be equal to the whole Capital in Perpetual Redeemable Annuities, and shall have produced as Interest or yearly Dividend equal in Amount to the whole annual Charge of such Loan contracted since the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and sixty seven, the said Commissioners shall thenceforth from time to time certify and declare the same to the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, who shall cause the said Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London and Dublin Gazette, and to be laid before Parliament (if Parliament shall be then sitting), but if Parliament shall not be then sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting of Parliament; and whenever any such Certificate and Declaration shall have been made, published and laid before Parliament as aforesaid, the Amount of Public Debt to which such Certificate and Declaration shall relate, shall from time to time be deemed and taken to be wholly satisfied and discharged, and an equal Amount of Capital Stock standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall be considered to be redeemed by Parliament, and shall from time to time be cancelled as above mentioned, at such times and in such Proportions as shall be directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be passed for that Purpose in order to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Debt of Ireland by way of Loan, or in any other manner, any thing in any Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless, that out of any Capital Stock to be cancelled as aforesaid there shall always be reserved such Sum or Sums as shall produce a yearly Interest or Dividend adequate to make Provision for the Payment of all Life Annuities which may then be payable out of the Sinking Fund of Ireland, in case of sufficient Redemption of Stock shall at any time thereafter have been made for that Purpose.

(a) [53 G. 3. c. 120.]

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case and whenever any such Capital Stock which may have been declared to be satisfied and discharged as aforesaid, or any Part of such Capital Stock, shall not be actually cancelled in virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament to be passed for that Purpose, then and in every such case the Dividends of all such Capital Stock as may not have been cancelled shall in the meantime and until the same shall be so actually cancelled, continue to be issued from the Receipt of the Exchequer of Ireland, and be placed to the Account of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt at the Bank of Ireland, and shall be applied by them in the Redemption of the National Debt in such and the same manner in all respects as the Dividends of any other Capital Stock standing in their Names are applicable for that Purpose.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That any such Capital Stock as aforesaid shall never be deemed to be Intended or discharged or be annulled by Parliament, in such a manner or to any such Extent as might not leave in the Hands of the said Commissioners a Sum sufficient (together with the other Funds or Sums of Money appropriated to them) to redeem or purchase as Annuity of redeemable Public Annuities equal to such Part of the whole of the redeemable Annuities of the Public Debt of Ireland as existed previous to the Twenty second Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, within Forty five Years from the said Twenty second Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, and to redeem or purchase as Annuity of redeemable Public Annuities equal to such Part thereof as hath been or shall be created subsequent to the said Twenty second Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two within Forty five Years from the respective Periods of the Creation of such redeemable Public Annuities respectively.

An Act to regulate Proceedings of Grand Juries in Ireland, upon Bills of Indictment.

[26th June 1816.]

WHEREAS a Practice hath prevailed, in many of the Grand Juries in Ireland, to find Bills of Indictment without examining Witnesses for the Crown; and it is expedient that this Practice should for the future be discontinued; Be it therefore declared and enacted by His Majesty's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act no Bill of Indictment shall be returned a true Bill, by any Grand Jury in Ireland unless the same hath been found by the Jurors upon the Evidence of one or more Witnesses for the Crown, sworn oathemur and produced before them, with such other lawful Evidence as the Nature of the case may require or admit of.

Before returning Bills of Indictment, Grand Juries to examine Evidence of Witnesses for the Crown.
Depositions made by such Witnesses before Magistrates may be laid before the Court.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in the present Act contained shall be construed to prevent such Court, at its Discretion, from directing the Informations or Depositions, which such Witnesses or Witnesses for the Crown may have previously sworn before a Magistrate, to be laid before the Grand Jury; and if upon the Examination of such Witnesses or Witnesses before the Grand Jury, it shall appear to the said Grand Jury that any of the said Witnesses shall have sworn falsely and corruptly, it shall and may be lawful for the said Grand Jury, and they are hereby required to report the same to the Court; and in case the Court shall thereupon think fit to order a Bill of Indictment for wilful and corrupt Perjury to be preferred against such Person, it shall be competent for any of the said Grand Jurors to give Evidence upon the Finding and Trial of such Indictment, notwithstanding the Oath which he shall have previously taken as a Grand Juror, any thing in the or in any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding; it being hereby expressly declared and enacted, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to have the Effect of rendering such Informations or Depositions Evidence in Support of a Bill before the Grand Jury, except as hereinafter provided.

III. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it was amongst other things enacted, that if any Person who hath given or shall give any Information or Examination upon Oath, against any Person or Persons, for any Offence against the Laws, hath been or shall, before the Trial or Trials of the Person or Persons respectively against whom such Information or Examination hath been or shall be given, be murdered or violently put to death, or so maimed or sorely carried away and secured, as not to be able to give Evidence on the Trial of the Person or Persons against whom such Information or Examination was given, the Information or Examination of such Person, so taken on Oath, shall be admitted in all Courts of Justice in Ireland, as Evidence on the Trial or Trials of the Person or Persons respectively against whom such Information or Examination was given; Be it further enacted, That so long as the said enacted Enactment shall be in force, the Informations or Examinations therein mentioned shall be Evidence to the Grand Jury upon the Bill preferred against the Person or Persons against whom such Information or Examination was given: Provided always, that the Information or Examination of a Witness so secured shall not be Evidence to the Grand Jury, unless it shall first be proved to the Grand Jury by Witnesses sworn, or other lawful Evidence, that the Person so secured has been secured by the Person or Persons against whom the Bill is preferred, or by some Person or Persons acting for him or her, or to his or her Friends.

An Act to amend the Law of Ireland respecting the Recovery of Tenements from absconding, overholding, and defaulting Tenants; and for the Protection of the Tenant from such Distress.

[26th June 1816.]

WHEREAS Landlords in Ireland are often Sufferers by Tenants running away in Arrears, and deserting Tenements demised or agreed to be demised to them; and also by Tenants, after the Expiration of their Terms or Interests, refusing to deliver up the Possession of the Tenements demised or agreed to be demised; and also by Tenants suffering large Arrears of Rent to accrue during the Continuance of their Terms; in all which cases the Landlords or Lessors are obliged to resort to an Ejectment for the Recovery of Possession, the Expense of which in many cases exceeds the Value of the Tenement: And Whereas it is just and reasonable to provide a less expensive Mode for the Recovery of the Possession of Tenements so abandoned by Tenants, and of Tenements of small Value, when the same are held by Tenants against their Landlords, after the Determination of their Terms or Interests; and also in cases of the Tenants of Tenements of small Value suffering Arrears of Rent to accrue during the Continuance of their Terms: And Whereas Cases tried in the Way of Civil Bills before the Chairman of the Session of the Peace for the County of Dublin, and Recorder of the City of Dublin for the County of the City of Dublin, and the Assistant Barristers of the other Counties in Ireland, are determined with more Expedition and less Expense than any Proceeding for the Recovery of the Rents thereof which the Law now allows the Landlord to make; and it is expressly directed to extend the Jurisdiction of such Assistant Barrillers, and of the Chairman of the Session of the Peace in the County of Dublin, and of the Recorder in the County of the City of Dublin, to the fastenings of Beams and other parts of the King's Mail Exchange Buildings, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of July next, if any Tenant holding any Tenement in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, who shall be in Arrear for One Half Year's Rent, shall desert the Tenement devoted to him, or leave the same unoccupied, or carry off the Stock and Crops, or otherwise abandon the same, in as so sufficient Distress may be had to answer the Arrears of Rent then due for the same, it shall be lawful for the Landlord or Lessor of the Tenement so deserted or left unoccupied or abandoned, to proceed by way of Civil Bill before the Recorder of the City of Dublin if the Tenement shall be in the County of the City of Dublin, or before the Chairman of the Session of the Peace for the County of Dublin if the Tenement shall be in the said County, and before the Assistant Barriller of any other County if the Tenement shall be in such County, to obtain Possession of the Tenement so deserted or left unoccupied; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for him or some Justices of the Peace of the County in which such Tenement shall be, having an Interest in the deserted Premises, at the Request of such Landlord or Lessor, his Bailiff or Receiver, to go upon and view the same, between the Hours of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon and Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, and having fully ascertained to their Satisfaction, by Examination of Witnesses or by their own View, that the Premises are so deserted by the Tenant, or left in as so occupied as aforesaid, and without sufficient Distress to answer the Arrears of Rent then due, to certify to the Assistant Barriller, Chairman of the Session of the Peace, or Recorder, before whom such Proceeding by Civil Bill shall be, under the Hands and Seals of such Justices, that they have together viewed the Premises in question, fully deserting the same, and that the same appeared to them deserted or unoccupied, and without any Distress thereon sufficient to answer the Arrears of Rent ascertained by Affidavit of the Landlord or Lessor, his Bailiff or Receiver, to be due thereon, after all fair and just Allowances; which Certificate, when proved to have been duly executed, shall be sufficient and conclusive Evidence of the Facts therein contained, unless the same shall be disproved by contrary Evidence, to the Satisfaction of the Judge before whom the case shall come, upon such Civil Bill as aforesaid, or Appeal from such Civil Bill; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Landlord, after obtaining from the said Justices the said Certificate, to give a Process on such Civil Bill, together with a Copy of such Certificate or the Tenant against whom such Proceeding shall be had if such Tenant can be found; and if not, to affix such Process, and a Copy of such Certificate, upon some exterior Part situate within the County of the City of Dublin, to answer the said Bill of the said Landlord or Lessor; and that it shall be lawful for the said Assistant Barriller, Chairman of the Session of the Peace, or Recorder, as the case may be, upon such Civil Bill, and upon Proof of such Certificate by any Person who may have obtained the Execution of the same, and upon Proof that at least One Half Year's Rent was due to such Landlord or Lessor for the Premises when such Proceeding was commenced; and that the Process on such Civil Bill, and a Copy of such Certificate were served as aforesaid, or that the Tenant could not be found, so that the same could be served, and then upon Proof that such Process and a Copy of such Certificate had been duly affixed upon the several Places before mentioned, pursuant to this Act; and upon hearing the Tenant, or case such Tenant shall appear, and such Evidence as shall be offered on behalf of such Tenant, if any shall be offered, and duly considering the same, to deliver the said Landlord or Lessor to be put into Possession of the Premises.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Tenement shall have been held by any Tenant at a late Rent due Twenty Pounds per Annum, and the Tenant's Interest in the same shall have been determined, and Day certain, at a Quarter Session for the Division of the County in which the Premises or any Part thereof shall be situate, or at a Court to be held before the Recorder for the hearing and determining of Civil Bills, in cases where the Premises are situate within the County of the City of Dublin, to answer the Bill of the said Landlord or Lessor praying to be put into Possession thereof; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Assistant Barriller, Chairman of the Session of the Peace, or Recorder, as the case may be, upon such Civil Bill, and upon Proof of such Service as aforesaid, or, in case of Impossibility or unreasonable Difficulty of serving,

vice, to be ascertained as hereinbefore provided, or in case there shall be no Person in Possession of the Premises, upon Proof of sitting of the said Process as hereinbefore required, and that the Premises had been held by the Tenant against whom such Proceeding shall be, at a Rate not exceeding Twenty Pounds per Annum, and that the Interest of the Tenant had determined, and that Notice to quit in case where such Notice is by Law necessary had been duly served, and the time for the Delivery of the Possession thereof expired, to decree the said Lessor or Lessee to be put into Possession of the Premises.

Assistant Barrister to sign Two Copies of every Decree

XII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases except where the Proceeding shall be grounded on Non Payment of Rent, the Assistant Barrister, Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace, or Recorder, as the case may be, shall sign Two Copies of every Decree which shall be made in pursuance of this Act, and also a Memoial thereof, for the Purpose of Registry in manner hereinafter mentioned, and that his signing his Signature to one of the said Copies shall be witnessed by some Person present at the time of such Signature; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Landlord or Lessor, if he thinks proper, at any time between the Termination of the Affairs for the County then next ensuing, and the Commencement of the Affairs thereafter next following, to register One Copy of the said Decree in the Office for the Registry of Deeds and Wills in Ireland, by lodging a Memoial and proving the Perfection of the same in like manner as is now provided by Law for the registering of Deeds; and that from and after the Registry of the said Decree, it shall have the further Effect of a Conveyance to the said Landlord or Lessor of any Interest which the Tenant, or any Person claiming under him, may or might have in and to the said Lands and Premises, freed and discharged from all Leases, Contracts, Mortgages, Debts, Charges or Incumbrances, which the said Tenant, or any Person claiming under him, may have charged, made or created thereon.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person in the said Office for the Registry of Deeds in Ireland shall demand or take any greater Fee, Gratuity or Sum of Money, for or on occasion of the Registry of any of the said Decrees, than he is now by Law entitled to for the Registry of a Deed, he shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Offence, to be recovered in an Action of Debt by any Person suing for the same.

XIV. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty Queen Anne, intitled An Act for the more effectual preserving of Privileges committed by Tenants, it is provided, that no Proceedings by writ or of such Act for Breach of any Condition, shall prejudice the Right or Title of any Infant, Feme Covert, Person being non compos mentis, or being out of His Majesty's Dominions; and by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First, to explain and amend the said former Act, it is provided, that the said Act of the Fourth Year of King George the First shall not extend to defeat the Estate, Right or Title of Infants, Femes Coverts, or Persons of non sane Memory; and Acts were passed in the Eighth Year of His said Majesty King George the First, and in the Fifth and Twenty-fifth Years of His late Majesty King George the Second, for further explaining and amending the said former Acts: And Whereas such Provisions have produced great Injustice to Landlords, in some Instances, by preventing the Enforcement of the Payment of Rent justly due to them, and in others by obliging them, after getting into Possession of Lands and Premises by Ejectment for Non Payment of Rent, to account for their Profits for a great length of time: Be it therefore further enacted, That the said Provisions in the said Acts of Parliament, so far as relate to saving the Rights of Infants, Femes Coverts, Persons being non compos mentis, or insane, or out of His Majesty's Dominions, be and the same are hereby repealed.

XV. And Whereas by a Law passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the more effectual securing the Payment of Rents, and preventing Frauds by Tenants, it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful to and for every Lessor or Landlord, lessor or Landlords, or his, her or their Steward, Bailiff, Receiver or other Person or Persons empowered by him, her or them, to take and fence as a Distress for Arrears of Rent, all Sorts of Cereals and Grass, Hops, Roots, Fruits, Polls or other Products whatsoever, which shall be growing on any Part of the Estate is demised or holden, as a Distress for Arrears of Rent, and the same to make, cut, gather, care, carry and lay up when ripe, in the Barn or other proper Place on the Premises so demised or holden; and in case there should be no Barn or proper Place on the Premises so demised or holden, then in any other Barn or proper Place which such Lessor or Landlord, lessor or Landlords, shall have or otherwise procure for that Purpose, and as near as may be to the Premises, in convenient time to appraise, sell or otherwise dispose of the same, towards Satisfaction of the Rent for which such Distress shall have been taken, and of the Charges of such Distress, Appraisalment and Sale, in the same manner as other Goods and Chattels may be seized, distrained and disposed of; and the Appraisalment thereof to be taken when cut, gathered, cared and made, and set before: And Whereas so such Provisions exist in the Law of Ireland, and it is reasonable that the Remedies of Landlords in Ireland should in this Respect be as extensive as they are in England: Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the First Day of July next, it shall and may be lawful to and for every Lessor or Landlord in that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, or his, her or their Steward, Bailiff, Receiver or other Person or Persons empowered by him, her or them, to take and fence, as a Distress for Arrears of Rent, all Sorts of Cereals and Grass, Hops, Roots, Fruits, Polls or other Products whatsoever, which shall be growing on any Part of the Estate is demised or holden, as a Distress for Arrears of Rent; and the same to make, cut, gather, care, carry and lay up, when ripe, in the Barn or other proper Place on the Premises so demised or holden; and in case there shall be no Barn or proper Place on the Premises so demised or holden, then in any other Barn or proper Place which such Lessor or Landlord, lessor or Landlords, shall have or otherwise procure for that Purpose, and as near as may be to the Premises, and dispose of the same towards Satisfaction of the Rent for which such Distress shall have been taken, and of the Charges of such Distress and Sale, in the same manner as any other Goods and Chattels distrained for Non Payment of Rent.

XVI. And Whereas it is fit and just that Provision should be made for securing the occupying Tenant as far as may be against being called upon for Payment more than Once of the Rent reserved and made payable to his immediate Landlord or Lessor out of the Land which he occupies, in consequence of superior Landlords distraining for the Rents due to them respectively: For Remedy thereof, be it enacted, That in all cases when the entire Rent due and payable from the occupying Tenant to his immediate Landlord or Landlords, Lessor or Lessors, shall have been paid, or in any manner satisfied, if, in consequence of the Force, Malfeasance or Neglect of such Landlord or Landlords to pay and satisfy the Rent due and owing to any superior Landlord made in pursuance of this Act.

An Act to authorize the advancing, for the Public Service, a Proportion of the Balance that shall remain from time to time in the Bank of England for the Payment of Dividends on account of the Public Debt, for Lottery Prizes or Benefits not claimed, and Principals of Stocks and Annuities remaining unclaimed.

[16th June 1815.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled
An Act to authorize the advancing, for the Public Service, upon certain Conditions, a Proportion of the Balance remaining in the Bank of England for Payment of Unclaimed Dividends, Annuities and Lottery Prizes; and for regulating the Allowances to be paid for the Management of the National Debt; it was among other things enacted, that the Governor and Company of the Bank of England should pay into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, out of the Balances in their Hands of Sums issued for the Payment of Dividends due and not demanded, and of unclaimed Lottery Prizes or Benefits, the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and eight; And Whereas the said Governor and Company duly paid the said Sum in pursuance of the said Act; And Whereas a considerable Balance now remains in the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for the Payment of Dividends on account of the Public Debt, for Lottery Prizes or Benefits not claimed, and Principals of Stocks and Annuities remaining unclaimed; and it is just and expedient that a Part of the said Balance should be advanced for the Service of the Public, on condition that if at any time the said Balance shall be reduced to a less Sum than One hundred thousand Pounds, then and in that case so much of the Monies advanced by the said Governor and Company as shall be equal to the Sum by which the said Balance shall be less than the Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds, shall be repaid to the said Governor and Company; Therefore we, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and it is enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That within Thirty Days after the Expiration of every Quarter an Account shall be taken of the lowest Amount of the Balances in the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, of Sums issued for the Payment of Dividends and Terminable Annuities on account of the National Debt due and not demanded, and for the Payment of Lottery Prizes or Benefits not claimed, and also of Sums which shall have been issued for the Payment of Principals of Stocks or Annuities remaining unclaimed; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to retain a Balance of One hundred thousand Pounds from and out of the lowest Sum to which the Dividends, Terminable Annuities, Lottery Prizes and Principals of Stocks aforesaid, due and remaining unclaimed, shall appear by such Account to have been reduced at any time in such Quarter; and the whole of the Amount which shall remain due and unclaimed, deducting therefrom such Sum as may be due and payable to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt by virtue of an Act of this Session of Parliament, over and above such Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds as aforesaid, shall, upon the Fifth Day of July, the Tenth Day of October, the Fifth Day of January, and the Fifth Day of April, in every Year, be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and applied to such Services as shall be directed by Parliament, without any Interest for the same; and if at any time hereafter the Monies remaining in the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, which have been issued to them for the Payment of any such Dividends, Lottery Prizes, or Benefits, and Principals of Stocks and Annuities, due and remaining unclaimed, shall be reduced to a less Sum than One hundred thousand Pounds, the said Governor and Company shall forthwith transmit a Certificate of the same, signed by One of their Officers, to the Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, and also to the Auditor of the Exchequer for the time being, containing a true Statement of the Amount to which the said Monies shall then be reduced; and that forthwith on the same Day as which any such Certificate containing such Statement as aforesaid shall be presented to the said Auditor at the Receipt of the Exchequer, the said Auditor shall make out a proper Debenture, directing the Payment of such Sum of Money as it shall appear by such Certificate the said Balances shall be reduced under One hundred thousand Pounds, which said Sum of Money shall, in case the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall demand the same, be issued and paid out of any Money in the Receipt of the Exchequer, of the Aids or Supplies granted to His Majesty, for the Service of the current Year, or of any preceding Year, or out of any Monies arising from the Surplus of the Consolidated Fund which may remain at the End of any Quarter for the Disposition of Parliament; and every such Debenture, being carried to the Clerk of the Pells, shall be forthwith recorded in the usual Manner in which Debentures are by law recorded; and thereupon the Teller or Tellers to whom any such Debenture shall be charged, shall, upon the same being presented to him or them, immediately pay or cause to be paid to the said Officer or Officers, for the Use of the said Governor and Company, the Sum contained in such Debenture accordingly; and in case, after the Repayment of any Part of the Monies which shall have been advanced under this Act, the said Balances shall at any time be again further reduced, in such case, as often as the same shall happen, such a further Sum shall in like manner be repaid to the said Governor and Company, as shall keep a Balance in the Hands of the said Governor and Company, for the Payment of

II. And be it further enacted, That if the Executors or Administrators of any deceased Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who at the time of his Death was entitled to any Half Pay, or the Executors or Administrators of any deceased Person receiving a Pension payable by Bill made out at the Navy Office, shall be desirous of receiving such Half Pay or Pension by Resittance Bill, Bill of Exchange or Exchequer, either in the manner hitherto used or by this Act provided, for the Payment of such Half Pay or Pension, and shall signify such his, her or their Desire by Letter to the Treasurer of the Navy, requesting Payment thereof by any of the Modes aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Treasurer of the Navy to pay or cause the same to be paid to such Executors or Administrators in the manner required, and that all and every the Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Penalties and Regulations contained, and now in force, in any former Act or Acts in or to the Payment of such Half Pay or Pension by any of the Modes aforesaid, shall be applied to such Payments, to such Executors and Administrators in such and the same manner as the same are now or have been hitherto applicable to any such Payments, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were herein and hereby repeated and amended.
